

Dear Topical Editor,

We would like to thank your careful revision of the manuscript edition. We have gone, among three of the authors, through all your comments in the annotated version of the manuscript, including your suggestions and correcting any additional typo that we have detected.

All these latest changes have been left in red in the marked, non-annotated, revised version uploaded to the editorial system.

Yours sincerely,